

Letter from the Chief of Police, Bill Raber

I would like to start by thanking you for your interest in the Peru Police Department. The Peru Police Department is currently made up of 29 sworn police officers, and three civilian employees. We service a population of approximately 12,500 citizens.

Our process has been developed and revamped so that we are able to hire whom we believe to be highly qualified officers. In order for an applicant to be considered for a police officer position, the applicant must meet the basic eligibility requirements and pass all eight steps of the hiring process.

Once an applicant has passed through the eight-step process, the Hiring Board will make their recommendation to the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police will then consider that recommendation, and make a determination to forward the recommendation on to the City of Peru Board of Works and Public Safety. Once this recommendation is forwarded by the Chief of Police, the applicant must be approved for employment by the City of Peru Board of Works and Public Safety.

I look forward to getting to know you through the hiring process. If you have any questions, I encourage you to call or visit our department.

Once again, thank you for your interest in the Peru Police Department.

Sincerely,

Bill Raber Chief of Police
